

The FCC should not step in to modify/supersede Indiana law. This law has greatly reduced the annoying telemarketing calls that inevitably occur at dinner time. Indiana's right to set laws to protect its residents should not be weakened!!!